

QUNO

Quaker United Nations Office

News from QUNO

Finding Determination in Disappointment: QUNO reflects on the Summit of the Future

On 22 and 23 September, world leaders met in New York for the Summit of the Future. The road to the Summit and its outcome document, the Pact for the Future, followed months of intense negotiation and has been a process that QUNO staff in Geneva and New York have followed closely.

UN Photo/Mark Garten

Read more

News

International Solidarity with Palestine Solidifies at the Outset of the 79th Session of the General Assembly

Read more

QUNO's Contribution to Care For Creation at the Friends World Committee on Consultation World Plenary

Read more

QUNO NY joins panel on 'Mobilizing Civil Society for Sustainable Peace in the Age of Crisis'

Read more

Welcoming new team members to QUNO in NY and Geneva

Read more

New Brief: "Trade Issues and the International Legally Binding Instrument on Plastic Pollution: A Legal Analysis"

Read more

Remembering Stephen Collett

For anyone who has worked with the Quaker UN Office (QUNO) in New York, Stephen Collett's name looms large as a former Director who provided steadfast leadership during a time of significant change at the UN. We are saddened to learn of his unexpected passing on 29 July 2024.

Photo by Terry Foss.

Read more

Donate to QUNO

Connect with Us

QUNO
Avenue du Mervelet 13
Geneva 1209

