

WOMEN'S VOICES FROM THE AMERICAS

The Struggle for Justice, Peace and Care for the Earth

This English-language webinar series will give participants an opportunity to learn from women leaders in the Americas about their interconnected struggles. Each week, a guest speaker will share for 40 minutes, followed by small group discussions, and a question and answer time. We will discuss strategies used in each of the speakers' contexts to build peace and justice, and to care for the environment, and our role to respond as members of international society. Each session will last about 90 minutes.

Where? Zoom

When? Saturdays 7 AM in Mexico City, 2 PM in Dublin, 10 PM in Seoul

Who? 20-50 participants who commit to join the full program. Conversational English is required. There is no participation fee.

Hosted by St. Francis Peace Center, Jeju Island, Korea; Irish School of Ecumenics, Trinity College Dublin, Ireland; Geopolitical Latin American Observatory, UNAM, Mexico
