INVITATION TO MEETING FOR WORSHIP WITH ATTENTION TO PEACEFUL US ELECTIONS

OCTOBER 29, 8PM CEST

The online group, US Quakers in Europe, is inviting Friends across EMES and beyond to join them for a special meeting for worship.

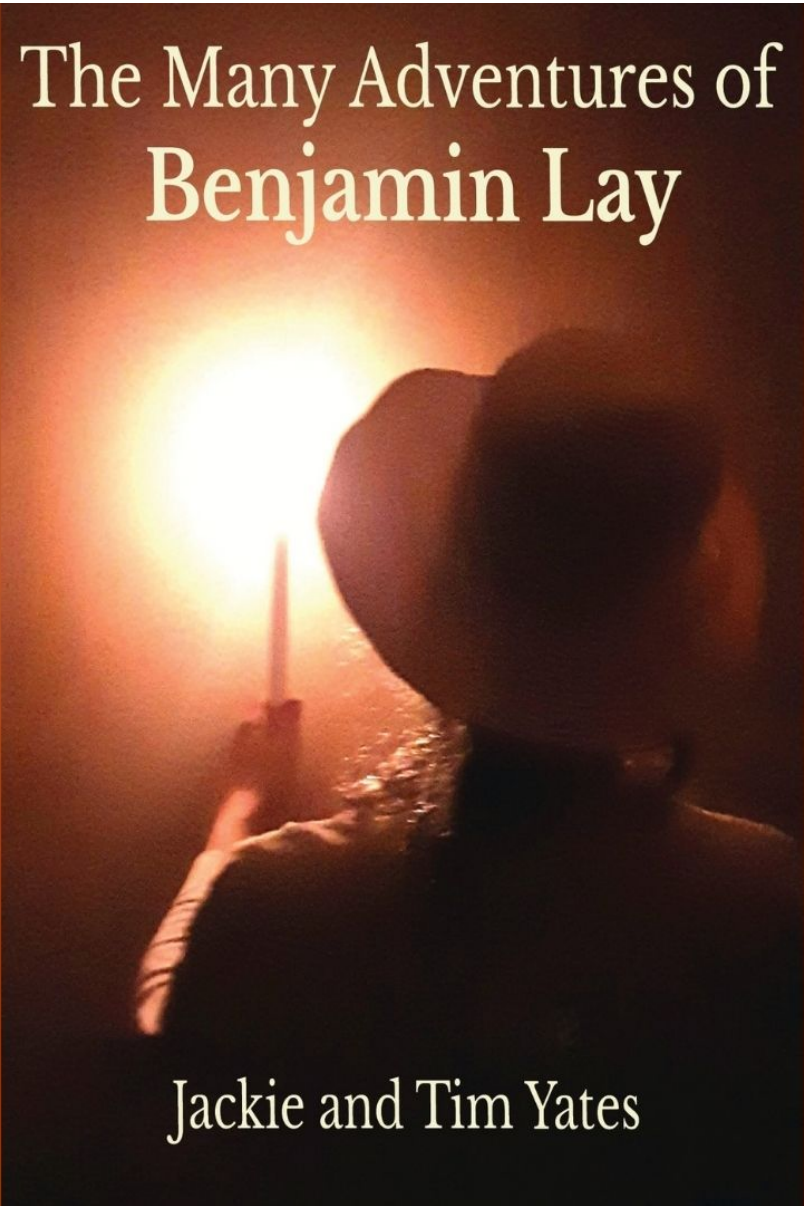

The purpose of the meeting is to pray that the US elections in November take place in a peaceful manner and with integrity. We especially want to hold Friends in the US in the Light.

This meeting for worship will take place via zoom on October 29 at 8 pm CEST / 7 pm BST / 3 PM EDT

To request a link to the meeting, send an e-mail to:

The Many Adventures of Benjamin Lay

Jackie and Tim Yates

Now available is the new book “The Many Adventures of Benjamin Lay,” about the 18th century shepherd, craftsman, bookseller, sailor and Quaker human rights advocate. Despite reaching the height of about four feet as an adult, Benjamin was able to overcome his physical difference and have an impact on conventional thinking of the time. Benjamin and his wife Sarah challenged the slave trade, and the mentality that led to it, using bold, innovative nonviolent action.

This novel introduces readers to the trailblazing Quaker in a way that is informative and exciting. The book can be ordered from most online bookstores. We hope you will join Benjamin and share with others his inspiring quest for a more just and compassionate world.

The Many Adventures of Benjamin Lay can be ordered from the websites of most major online bookstores, just type in the exact title.
